

Wednesday 16th October -English Homework

We have been using the book Journey by Aaron Becker. It is a beautiful, wordless picture book about an ordinary, little girl who seeks the attention of her busy family. Instead she discovers a fantastic world on the other side of her bedroom wall.

What if there was something magic that could take you far away. What would you do? Where would you go?

